

01763244475
support@emailmum.com

EMAIL MUM LIMITED – TERMS OF TRADE

Part One: Our Exclusive Service To You, The Client

1. Service Commitment

- 1 Email Mum Ltd will provide clients with a high quality bespoke housekeeping service through fully trained staff members directly employed by the company (no agencies involved).
- 2 All cleaning products are provided by Email Mum Ltd in line with current COSHH regulations; the client is not responsible for supply. However, the client is asked to provide a serviceable vacuum cleaner and a mop/bucket.
- 3 The company is committed to do their best to deliver a regular service to the client, and will endeavour to provide adequately trained cover staff in the event of holidays or sickness on the part of the client's regular housekeeper, unless the client requests at time of contract commencement to only have their regular housekeeper perform Email Mum Ltd services. Please see 'Cancellation Policy' for emergency situations.
- 4 Email Mum Ltd operates a standard Christmas Shutdown period per annum, where services are suspended from Christmas Eve to New Year's Day inclusive.
- 5 A separate service list agreement may be given to clients (where applicable) with a detailed breakdown list included, as well as the factors used to determine individual visit times recommended for the client's property.

1. Price Of Service

- 1.1 The hourly housekeeping rate quoted is inclusive of VAT.
- 2.2 The company's pricing policy includes the right to implement a small annual rise. If this right is exercised, it will usually but not exclusively be around September.
- 2.3 Email Mum Ltd operates a Suspension of Service policy for non-payment of invoices/service visits. More details are provided in Part Two: Payments Policy.

1. Warranties and Liability

- 3.1 Email Mum Ltd warrants that housekeeping services will be undertaken with reasonable care and skill and, as far as reasonably possible, in accordance with the Contract and individual property service agreement.
- 3.2 Email Mum Ltd is fully insured to current UK company liability standards for accidental damage or loss caused to household items as a direct result of housekeeper error. NB. If client's vacuum cleaner or any other electrical appliance used during visits develops a fault, Email Mum Ltd cannot be held responsible for the item's repair.
- 3.3 Damage claims must be submitted in writing within 24 hours of the accident, and a managerial representative of the company will need to see the item in order for reimbursement or replacement to be granted. If replacement of item is subsequently taken care of by the client, a proof of purchase receipt will then be required for reimbursement.
- 3.4 It is company policy to ensure that all health and safety guidelines are followed, including risk assessments and COSHH documentation.
- 3.5 Force Majeure rules also apply, which frees Email Mum Ltd or the client from liability or obligations due to non-performance or delayed performance of services when any extraordinary event occurs beyond the parties' control, resulting in prevention of said housekeeping services.
- 3.6 It is the client's responsibility to inform the company about any special floors or surfaces within their property that require a different kind of care and/or products used on the cleaning of them. If the client has not informed the company of this beforehand, and damage through use of incorrect products occurs, it will then be down to the company management's discretion on whether to reimburse the client.

1. Cancellation Policy

On The Part of the Client:

- 4.1 In Cases of Client Sickness Or Emergency Resulting in Cancellation – The client is required to notify the company of the cancellation by 8.30am on the morning of the scheduled service visit. If notification is not conveyed to the company by this specified time, then we reserve the right to make a late cancellation charge of 60% of the scheduled service visit (inclusive of VAT).
- 4.2 In Cases of Client Not Requiring Service Due To Client Being Absent on Booked Holiday – The client is required to inform Email Mum Ltd that visit(s) will not be required on dates of booked holiday no less than two weeks beforehand. If no notification is given to the company and a clean is conducted, then normal service visit charges will apply. For those clients who do not provide Email Mum Ltd with an entrance key, the 60% late cancellation charge as outlined in Clause 4.1 will apply.
- 4.3 For Termination of Regular Service – Email Mum Ltd requires a minimum of four weeks' notice for termination of service, unless it is within one month of commencement of the housekeeping service, or in circumstances of client and company dispute.
- 4.4 For Temporary Suspension of Regular Service – Email Mum Ltd will guarantee to hold a client's preferred service slot open for two weeks without the need of a service retainer. After this period, if no retaining fee is agreed, the company reserves the right to pass that slot onto another client. Email Mum Ltd cannot guarantee that with resumption of service, they will be able to provide the same housekeeper as she/he who was available prior to the suspension period.

- 4.5 In Cases of No Staff Member Arrival On Expected Visit Day – It is the responsibility of the company to alert the client if their regular housekeeper cannot undertake a scheduled visit. If the client is expecting a visit and no Email Mum Ltd representative arrives, the company requests that the client inform them as soon as possible. The company will then take appropriate action depending on the circumstances resulting in non-arrival. The company will endeavour to offer the client an alternative visit day wherever possible. If non-arrival is due to an emergency, then Clause 4.7 will apply.
- 4.6 In Cases of Staff Member’s Scheduled Holiday – Email Mum Ltd will inform and provide the client with temporary cover staff, fully trained according to the company’s regulated standards, unless the client has previously requested that no cover staff be sent when their regular housekeeper is unavailable or unexpected circumstances render the company unable to send an appropriately trained Email Mum Ltd staff member.
- 4.7 In Cases of Staff Member’s Unforeseen Absence Due To Sickness or Emergency – Email Mum Ltd cannot guarantee that there will be adequate staff resource available at very short notice to cover an unexpected absence. However, the company will do their best wherever possible to send a fully trained replacement member of staff within 48 hours of the scheduled service, or the client’s regular housekeeper at a later date, if the client is agreeable to the temporary change of visit day and staff schedules allow. The client also has the right to refuse a replacement if the emergency alternative suggested is inconvenient.
- 4.8 In Cases of Staff Member’s Absence Due To Long Term Sickness – Email Mum Ltd will inform and provide the client with cover staff, fully trained according to the company’s regulated standards, unless the client has previously requested that no cover staff be sent when their regular housekeeper is unavailable or unexpected circumstances render the company unable to send an appropriately trained Email Mum Ltd staff member.

1. Complaints Procedure

- 5.1 It is Email Mum Ltd’s ongoing commitment to provide all of its clients with a high quality service, and if that service standard is not met, to deal with complaints in a fair and confidential manner. To place a complaint against services, the client needs to contact the management office in the first instance, and within 24 hours of the problem occurring/the visit taking place (allowance will be made if client is on holiday at time of incident). A reporting process will then be undertaken, which may include a visit to the client property if considered necessary or desired by client. If the outcome of this process is unsatisfactory to the client, the issue will then be passed over to the company directors for further consideration.
- 5.2 Any refunds, if applicable, can only be granted for the visit under investigation. Email Mum Ltd cannot consider reimbursements for housekeeping services completed at any time before or after the complaint is raised. Therefore, the client must ensure that any dissatisfaction with service is raised at the time of the scheduled housekeeping visit to ensure a satisfactory outcome for both client and company.

1. Breach of Contract

- 6.1 Please be advised that all Email Mum Ltd staff members are working under an ‘Anti-Trust’ contract. Therefore, any separate agreement made between Email Mum Ltd clients and individual Email Mum Ltd housekeepers to the detriment of the company would result in legal proceedings.
- 6.2 Email Mum Ltd reserves the right to terminate any contract if its members of staff are asked to perform any task that breaches current health and safety regulations, or places any staff members in a position that threatens their well-being.

1. Confidentiality

- 7.1 Confidentiality is an essential requirement of Email Mum Ltd’s dedicated service to the client. We will respect and protect our clients’ confidential details at all times, by way of conditions of employment and the ongoing training and management of our staff members.

1. Other

- 8.1 Email Mum Ltd reserves the right to alter these terms and conditions of service at any time, to comply with any relevant safety or statutory requirements.
- 8.2 English law applies to the Contract and the Terms, and the parties hereby submit to the non exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
- 8.3 Definitions:

‘The Client’	-	the recipient of Email Mum Ltd’s housekeeping services
‘The Company’	-	Email Mum Ltd, insured provider of domestic housekeeping services
‘Staff Member’	-	trained housekeeper directly employed by Email Mum Ltd
‘Service’	-	housekeeping duties or tasks provided by Email Mum Ltd, agreed with client
‘Contract’	-	contract between Email Mum Ltd and the client incorporating these terms
‘Parties’	-	the client and the company, as specified above
‘One over One’	-	a method of payment in which client settles bill after each cleaning visit

Part Two: Payment Policy

1. Payments Procedure

- 9.1 Email Mum Ltd operates a choice of One Over One or monthly invoice payment procedures.
- 9.2 For One Over One payments, the client agrees to settle the amount of each housekeeping visit within 72 hours of the visit taking place, unless a complaints procedure is underway. If settlement is not received within this credit period, charges as outlined in Clause 10.3 and 10.4 will apply.
- 9.3 Monthly credit accounts are granted on a 'services paid in arrears' arrangement, in which an invoice will be generated for the client at the end of each month and sent out at the beginning of the month following. Invoice amounts must be settled by the client by the date of the 15th of the calendar month in which the invoice has been sent i.e. Invoice for January services will be processed and sent to client at the beginning of February; client must then settle amount stated by the 15th of February. If permission has been granted for the client to pay by cheque, allowance must be made for the five working days of clearance (plus postage time if applicable) to ensure that the monthly account is still cleared by the 15th credit condition.
- 9.4 On very rare occasions, the company may consider the arrangement of a Standing Order payment, in which an average monthly amount would be calculated based on visit duration and regularity, and other circumstances such as the Christmas Shutdown period. If this arrangement is ever granted, the client would be expected to set up a direct Standing Order payment to be paid into the company business bank account on the 25th of each month.

Payment Methods

- 9.5 Email Mum Ltd does not accept any cash payments.
- 9.6 The settlement method of service charges is by bank transfer (direct from client account to company bank account). Company bank details are provided.
- 9.7 In extenuating circumstances, the company may consider cheque payment by special arrangement (which can be collected by the housekeeper when at the property or posted if preferred). This is subject to a handling charge of £2 per cheque. The client must ensure that allowance is made for clearance of cheques so they are not exceeding the 15th monthly date credit condition.
- 9.8 If a Standing Order arrangement has been allowed, it is the responsibility of the client to alter that Standing Order amount as soon as alerted by the company in the event of adjustments to services received etc or any price increase. If client refunds occur as a result of unchanged Standing Orders, the company reserve the right to charge an administration handling fee. If unchanged Standing Orders result in the client exceeding the credit terms as stated in Clauses 10.1 and 10.2, then Clauses 10.3 and/or 10.4 will apply. Any monies owing by or owed to the client after an agreed period of time (usually annually) will be settled to both parties' agreement, usually, but not exclusively, resulting in a one-off payment of credit or debit by the client or company.

1. Credit Terms

- 10.1 Invoice settlement of monthly credit accounts must be remitted by the 15th day of the calendar month in which invoice is received by the client (for services performed without payment in the previous calendar month). If no payment is received within this credit period, and no valid reason is put forth for non-payment, Clauses 10.3 and 10.4 will be put into effect.
- 10.2 Settlement of One Over One accounts must be made within 72 hours of completion of the scheduled service visit. If payment is not received and no complaint procedure or dispute applies and/or no valid reason is put forth for non-payment, Clauses 10.3 and 10.4 will be put into effect.
- 10.3 Email Mum Ltd will implement a 3% late payment fee to any client exceeding the agreed credit terms, unless the reason for non-payment is considered valid and acceptable on that occasion by the company. This late payment fee will be applied for the month in question, and every month following at a rate of 3% upon the total outstanding account amount as it stands per month, until the account is paid in full.
- 10.4 Email Mum Ltd reserves the right to suspend any regular housekeeping service at any time if a client exceeds the agreed credit terms, and the amount owed to the company is undisputed. Suspension of service is undertaken in cases of non-payment of services already rendered in good faith by the company, and if considered necessary by the company directors, in the event of a dispute between client and staff members/company.